Troops Charge Crowds in Bogota Streets Who Cry Out ainst President and Call for Change of Government.

SEVERAL WOUNDED AND CITY UNDER MARTIAL LAW

Residence of Leading Official Stoned After Excting Mass Meeting United States Con sulate Under State Protection

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.-The Stat riment has received a cablegram United States Minister Beaupre, at dated Nov. 9, in which the Min r states that large crowds were par the streets on the 8th inst. crying n with Marroquin!"

here was a mass-meeting denouncing the President and calling for a chafge of government. Hundreds gathered at the palace, and the orator, a prominent ational general, called for the resigna-on of the President.

Tas gathering was dispersed by the several persons being wounded, Catera were no fatalities.

guarded by soldiers. Legation of the United States wa the protection of the Government. there were no indications of hostile o Marroquin (believed here to be a nator and son of the President) has

FIGHT IS EXPECTED AT BUENAVENTURA.

MA, Nov. 11 .- The United States neord which left here yesay afternoon is said to be bound for tura. The United States crui-Boston and Marblehead remain a Buenaventura was to the effect the Colombian authorities were eithed an attack on that port from direction of Panama, that they were the entremembers and that the problem surboat Bogon was teing poed for action.

COMOMBIA'S PROTEST ACKNOWLEDGED BY HAY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.-The reply the State Department to the protest paul Cabrera at the head of 800 reveled by Dr. Herran, the Colombian clutionists, with six pieces of artillery charge, was forwarded to him to-day, and a treasure chest containing $4,000, ment that the protest had been re-

AV STEAMERS IN CRASH. ANTWERP, Noy. 11.-The British

eams: Tampican, Capt. Harrison, out-ard bound for Liverpool, was in colli-te last night with the British ship oridon, Capt. Mearns, outward bound a London, The Torridon was badly

TELLS OF A FIGHT

Waitress in the Home of the Ex-Sheriff Testifies About What Happened When Youth Came Late to Dinner.

Mrs. Kugel, the German cook who is The Merchants and Manufacturers Board of Trade met at the rooms of the Building Trades Club in the Townster charges in the suit of ex-Sherical Market Cody Continued her testimony regarding Mrs. O'Brien and her triends, Garage Powers and Paul H. Suith, before Justice Leventritt and a jury in the Suppress Court.

The Merchants and Manufacturers argument wis a "weird and uncanny romance." "We don't want weird, uncanny romances here." said Justice Clarke, "twent to hear your argument why this demurrer should not be stricken out and judgment ordered." Mr. Coby contented himself with handing up his papers, and afterward her refused to tell the grounds of his demurrer, and, on being pressed, said the would not be cross-examined. The Court has the papers, and decision was reserved.

ser at dinner time if he chooses. The following resolutions were offered you not to serve him."

and Jimmy had it but.

SHIPPING NEWS.

ALMANAC FOR TO-DAY. rises. 6.42|Sun sets. 4.47|Moon rises 11.25 ful citizens to the subject; therefore THE TIDES. High Water. Low Water.
A.M. P.M. A.M. P.M.
Hook. . . . . . 2.15 — 6.00 6.45 or a lafand . 12.03 12.30 6.29 7.19 th Forey . . 1.50 2.23 8.60 8.71

PORT OF NEW YORK.

ARRIVED.

THREE UNITED STATES WARSHIPS THAT ARE AVAILABLE TO PROCEED AT ONCE TO ISTHMUS TO DEAL WITH ANY HOSTILE DEMONSTRATION AGAINST NEW GOVERNMENTA

FIGHT GOES ON AT SAN DOMINGO

Rebels Surround the City and Six Hundred Venezuelan Revo-Drop Shells Into the Streets, but Beseiged Residents Make Determined Resistance.

SAN DOMINGO, Tuesday, Nov. 10.lutionists and commerce is paralyzed. Figing around San Domingo con-the city. The political situation is unchanged. The German warships Panther and Gazelle are here. ment of San Domingo the revolution-ists notified the Diplomatic Corps and the Consular officers that they had pre-the patriots couldn't get them out of viously served notice on the Domin-the rifles after they had been exploded, ician Goyernment that the forces of the and he demands $50,000 damages for the

The representatives of the powers me this morning, and decided that they could only hold communications with th legally established Government of the country.

merely a, formal acknowledge arrived yesterday before the city. critical and the presence of more warships at San Domingo is urgently re

> The guard for the German Consulate which was landed from the cruisers of Germany now in port, is in constant communication with the latter means of a signal station which has

NEW IMMIGRATION LAWS DEMANDED

Merchants and Manufactur-Passes Resolutions Calling speakers followed.

A special meeting of the whole associ-the waitress in the O'Brien Lime. Miss ation will be held at the rooms of the Brown told about a fight she once had Bullding Trades Association at 6.30 Timmy O'Brien, jr., when a recess o'clock on the evening of the 23d, for the consideration of the report of the committeen the revision of the conto dinner. He is on his mother's side stitution and by laws and the further in the matrimonial row and the ex- discussion of the immigration question. Sheriff said to Tessie Brown:

That boy, Jimmy, has nothing to (2)

That boy, Jimmy, has nothing to (3)
but smuse himself, and he can be at there are $18,000 in the coffers. The treasurer's report proved eminent ly satisfactory, his showing being that Now if he comes late again don't you by G. C. Shayne, President of the Board; serve him and you tell him I ordered "Whereas, the enormous immigration flowing into this country within recent Miss Brown obeyed orders and she years, together with the lowering of the moral and physical standard of those immigrants now arraving in such num-bers is regarded by the thinking people of the dation as a menace to the future prosperity and happiness of our people and has drawn the attention of thought-

> "Resolved. That it is the sense of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Board County, heard the cries of a child who of Trade that the law of 1903, amend- was calling for "mamma." The little ing that of 1893, is inadequate, that it one was standing on the roadside near places the power of examination of the her home, and informed the hunters places the power of examination of the immigrant at the port of embarkation too much within the power of the Liverbool Liverbool steamship companies whose interests Liverbool steamship companies whose interests Reuben Cones was found in the pantry the Government of the United States a supersy commercial, and takes from the Government of the United States a function properly belonging to it, and or Antenion which should not have been abandoned; and wild be should not have been abandoned; and or it "Further Rescived, that we believe the law of 1902 should be repealed or generated by the law of 1902 should be repealed or amended to the end that a new and more restrictive measure may be enacted."
>
> Liverbool Liverbool the body of Mrs. Reuben Cones was found in the pantry with her throat cut, while on a table lay the knife with which the deed had been committed.
>
> The little girl informed the men that her father and mother had quarrelied and that the father had killed the woman.
>
> Cones is missing and a search is being

ARMS FOR REBELS WERE DEFECTIVE

lutionists Lost Lives in Consequence, Lawyer Alleges, and $81,000 Suit Results.

Thomas E. Evans, in a suit for $81. 000 damagas from the Marcellus Hartley Company, says he bought $31,000 worth of rifles and ammunition from the firm for the revolutionary party in Venesuela in 1901, and that only a part was delivered, and that part was so bad that the army was practically defense ess, and 600 brave patriots were sho

He sues the Hartley Company to r cover the $31,000 paid for the 400 rifles and 100,000 cartridges on the ground that revolution intended to adopt all means, failure of the firm to deliver all the including a bombardment, in their efgoods purchased, claiming that only $9,400 worth were shipped to Presiden Andrade, the leader of the revolution ists against the Castro Venezuelan Gov

Demurred to Complaint.

Ex-United States Senator John M Phyriton and R. Leslie Moffett are at-bridge for Evans, and Bainbridge Colby appeared for the Hartley Company in a lemurrer to the complaint on the ground that it joined two causes of action imcroperly-breach of contract and com

Mr. Moffett appeared before Justice Marke in the Supreme Court to-day, and moved for judgment in favor of Evans n the ground that the demucrer was on the ground that the dominrer was ifrivolous.

"The goods were purchased on a warranty that they were perfect." said Mr. A. offett, "but only $3,400 worth were delivered as ordered at the Port of Spain, Curacoa, where they were delivered to the allies and friends of the revolution, and we demand $30,000 damages for the alleged defective goods delivered and for the fasiure to deliver the remaining $21,600 worth.

"But the goods proved not to be up to the guarantee. The cartridges were not uniform in size, the heads particularly, and after the rifles had been discharged it was impossible to remove the cartridge shells, so that allies and friends were at the mercy of the enemy and 600 were shot down. We demand $3,1400 for breach of contract."

"Do you sue for the loss of the lives of the friends and allies of the Mathos-Andrade party?" asked Justice Clarke, with a whimsical smile.

"That's exactly it," put in Mr. Colby.

ers' Association Unanimously of the amountation furnished by this defendant," retorted Mr. Moffett.

Own Forces Injured. for Restrictive Measures.

"Instead of inflicting loss upon the enemy, those who used them suffered the loss," said Justice Clarke, adding:
"I suppose, if the whole purchase had been delivered, you would be suing for $100,000 instead of $50,000 damages."

Mr. Colby characterized Mr. Montett's argument, us a "welrd and uncanny romance."

SAVING CHIER

HER MOTHER SLAIN

Calls Hunters to House Where Them that Her Father Committed the Murder.

CHATHAM, N. Y., Nov. 11.—Two hunters while passing near the village of Taghkanic, in Southern Columbia County, heard the cries of a child who was calling for "mamma." The little one was standing on the roadside near the home, and informed the hunters that her mother was dead in the house. On investigation the body of Mrs. Reuben Cones was found in the pantry with her throat cut, while on a table lay the knife with which the deed had been committed.

The little girl informed the men that the father and mother had quarrelied and that the father and mother had quarrelied and that the father had killed the woman.

Ones is missing and a search is being made for him.

It is expected that he will be found feed and in the Taghkanic woods, as other members of his family have committed.

A generalied Care for Piles.

Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Adha Daniel was in the front roop and ran back on hearing Mrs. Weeckhelker's screams. The women in attempting to smother the first that was consuming Mrs. Weeckhelker's screams. The women met half-way through the found have burned there was found have burned to her was found have burned to her home, and informed the men that was consuming mrs. Weeckhelker's screams. The women met half-way through the first was consuming mrs. Weeckhelker's screams. The women met half-way through the found have consuming the other to her own.

Undoubledly both would have burned Magistrate George A. Hollis, of Willington.

Mrs. Hollis is the owner of several farms. Her husband, who was a merchant and promoter, was a brother of Magistrate George A. Hollis, of Willington.

Mrs. Hollis was twenty-five years old and her husband thirty-five. The women met half-way through the family. Ward St. Of a relative of t more restrictive measure may be enacted."

NO SLUMPS, BUT DAILY, REGULARY, mosth is and month out, in Mere York City circulation That World maintains a lead of Tens of Theorem over any other paper.

No slumps, but Daily, Regularies of his family have committed with the committed of the found and a farm laborer. The wile was one of a community of Dasket-crafters, having lived in a section of the town known as the "Taunchies."

A Guaranteed Care for Piles.

Itching. Biled in the Eastern and an annual model of the town known as the "Taunchies."

Jeanuary is and to have inspired Cones to commit the crime.

WOMEN IN PANIC LEAP INTO NETS

(Continued from First Page.)

the painter's apprentice, and George Ahrens, of No. 250 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, fought to keep them away from the windows. In this struggle Baubulosky shoved his right hand through a heavy plate-glass

Miss Marcie Grady, seventeen years old, of No. 446 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, a stenographer in the place, was the first to jump

CHEERED AS THEY JUMPED.

She landed safely and was cheered by the great crowd. Miss Nellie Stewart, of No. 295 East One Hundred and Twenty-second street, was the next to jump. She had gone to the place to exchange trading stamps for premiums. While in midair she turned over, but struck the net safely, She was also cheered.

Of the three other women who leaped into the net one struck on the side and it was believed that she was injured. But she revived in the ambulance on the way to the Harlem Hospital and insisted on going to her

By quick and energetic work the firemen gained control of the fire before it had gone far into the adjoining building, and by flooding the whole structure they squelched it. The explosion is believed to have been caused by a polish used in dressing up furniture given away for trading stamps, th a whimsical smile.

"That's exactly it," put in Mr. Colby.
"Yes, and we claim that dreadful loss the crowds. But the work of his men was so efficient that no accidents

WOMAN SHOOTS SAVING CHILDREN HER HUSBAND DEAD

mitment to an Asylum for the Insane and She Killed

DOVER, Del., Nov. 11 .- Mrs. Edith ackson Hollis, a nember of an influ-ential Camden, Del., family, murdered her husband, Delaware T. Hollis, by thooting him through the head while he was asleep early to-day. Hollis was siting in a chair when his wife placed the evolver to his head and blew out his

The husband last night consented to his wife being sent to the insane asylum at Farnhurst, Del., for treatment, and the wife believed from that moment that her husband had turned against her.

Mrs. Hollis's friends made strenuous efforts to prevent her being committed to the Dover Jail, but the Judges were firm in their conviction that she should be treated as any other defendant in a her and, escaping from the house, made her way to her own home, where she found her husband sleeping in a rock-ing-chair. Without disturbing him she drew a revolver from her dress and, placing it behind the man's ear, killed him instantly. She then returned to Dr. Conwell's house and informed the family of her act.

Him While He Slept.

Oil Stove Exploded, and to Pro- He Had Consented to Her Comtect Little Ones She Put Out Flames, but Was Perhaps Mortally Hurt Doing So.

Upon returning from a shopping tou this afternoon Mrs. Mary Weeckhel-kers, of No. 54 Harrison avenue, entered her apartment just as the oll stove in the kitchen exploded. Her children, Barbara, Anna and Lena, aged thirteen, eight and five, respectively, were in the room and one of them had been playing with the stove.

Fearful of the lives of the little ones Woman Lay Dead and Tells Mrs. Weeckhelkers attempted to extinguish the flames, and succeeded in doing so, but in the operation her own clothing caught fire. She lost her presence of mind and ran screaming through the flat, the flames spreading with every move she made.

Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Anna Banner, CHATHAM, N. Y., Nov. 11.—Two was in the front room and ran back on ### draw Resignation.

O'BRIEN WILL STAY OUT.

amous Irishman Refuses to With

LONDON. Nov. 11 .- Replying to the Cork branch of the United Irish League which requested him to withdraw his resignation as Member of Parliament for Cork city. William O'Brien has refused to do so. He says he wished to leave his enemies free scope to carry on their opposition to his policy and adds that he could not explain his reasons without publishing "horrifying details."

The President of the Cork branch of the United Irish League, in reply, says he regrets Mr. O'Brien's refusal and adds that the national cause is "tottering to ruin in the South."

ESTABLISHED OVER 40 YEARS. BRANN MANUFACTURING JEWELLER 231 Eighth Ave., Bet. 21st OPEN EVENINGS.

$10

A large selection of 14 and 18 k. solid gold Wedding Rings. $2.75 up All engraving done free of charge

A large selection of handsome heavy 14-kt. solid gold Initial $1.90 Rings Handsome 14 kt. solid gold Gents Hunting Case WATCH, beautifully appraised, stem winder. Waitham of Eighn Jewelled movement: value $23.00 $40.00; our price.

A very handsome 14 kt. solid gold Seal RING, with uionogram engraved $3.90 free; value $10.00.

Large assortment of solid gold 14 kt. link Cuff Buttons, with large-gen. $5.00

OPEN EVENINGS.

It will pay you to come miles out of your way for these great bargains. Mail Orders Promptly Attended To

DIED.

BRADLEY.—SADIE, dearly beloved daughter of James and Mary Bradley, on Monday, Nov. 9.
Funeral from her late residence. 202
East 26th st., Thursday, at 2 P. M.

ORAN.-On Nov. 10, 1903, the Rev. NICH-OLAS J. DORAN. OLAS J. DORAN.
Solemn obsequies Friday, Nov. 13, at 9,39 A. M. at St. Stephen's Church, corner Hicks and Summit ats. Reverend clergy, relatives and friends respectfully

Rosanna Keenan (nee Murphy), after a of funeral hereafter. Residence

EARDON.—Suddenly, at Tompkinsville, S L. Nov. 11, JEREMIAH REARDON

A Special Suit Sale

Begins Thursday Morning at 80 clock

at Our Three Stores.

We've gathered together a lot of $20,00 and $22,50 Smart Sack Suits and marked them at the uniform price of Every suit is of this season's production; faultlessly tailored and made of high-grade fabrics in plain black, and fancy plaids, stripes and mixed effects. The coats are cut single and double breasted—either three. No Garme it Is Permitted to Leave Cur Stores Unless It Fits' You Perfectly.

Three Stores.

Cortlandt St., No. 31.

Fulton St., S. W. Cor Nassau St. 125th St., East, 154 to 164.

COUNTER GOODS LB. 20c.

SPECIAL FOR WEDNESDAY

SPECIAL FOR THURSDAY.

Our candies are in every respect of high qualified RIND, even though selfing at these low prices. We will deliver 10 lbs.

Sc. No Goods Sent C. O. D

Humstein

Offers for Thursdays

Millinery Department (Second-Floor.) Women's Hats, stylishly trimmed, in a large variety of shapes and designs from our own workrooms; former prices $5, $6 and $7,

Knitted Underwear Dept. (Main-Floor.)

Women's Vests, ribbed, silk plaited, elaborately hand crocheted; value $1.19, Fur Department (Second Floor.)

Double Isabella Fox Boas, with natural tails 9.95

Women's Dept.

WEST 125th St., 7th and 8th Aves.

A DRESSY SUIT of fine quality Lymansville Cheviot, long Blouseshaped Coat with natty shoulder Capes, stitched Satin Vest and Collar, 9-gore pleated bottom Skirt, Coat lined with Skinner Satinblack, blue and brown,

Hackett Carbart & Co. Broadway and 13th St.

VINCENT says NEXT time you have a

come in and try on an English Walking Suit. Smartness itself if made right. Mine are. English Walking Suits, Stein-Bloch's, $25.00. Broadway store only. Broadway—22d Street. Sixth Avenue—12th Street.

Lowest Cash Price. Ven's Pure Worsted Seits, $10.08. Pay Only $ 1 a Week. NATIONAL OUTFITTING CO.

166 W. 23d, N. Y.; 62 W. 125th, N. 68 Newark ave., Jersey City. PILE cures piles, countination, etc. OIL

Prenheimer Institute Treats ALCOHOL and DRUG DISEASES only 131-133 WEST 45 " ST. NEW YORK

New Publications.

New Publications.

PRONOUNCED "BETTER THAN 'ROBIN HOOD,' "

"RED FEATHER,"

The Great DE KOVEN-KLEIN-COOK OPERA, Triumphantly Produced
BY FLORENCE ZIEGFELD, JR.
THE IMPORTANT VOCAL NUMBERS INCLUDE:
"GARDEN OF DREAMS"
"PRINCE OF GOOD FELLOWS,"
"PRINCE OF GOOD FELLOWS,"
"A MADRIGAL"
"THE ROSE AND THE BREEZE,"
"SONG OF THE GUARD."
Complete Vocal Score Now Ready, Price $2.00.
Write for complete Catalogue. Copies for sale at all music shops or Write for complete Catalogue. Copies for sale at all music shops or irect of publishers, 25 cents each, or any five for $1. Address JOSEPH W. STERN & CO., 34 E. 21st St., New York.